

National Health Insurance System in force

12 March 2019 – The General Healthcare System Law of 2001 (GHS), as amended, came into force as from 1 March 2019.

Consequently, individuals, employees, employers and self-employed are now subject to the GHS's contributions at 1,70% for employees and pensioners, 1,85% for employers, 1,65% for the government, and 2,55% for self-employed individuals.

The contributions will be deducted from the entire earnings of the individuals (including dividends, interest and rental income) up to a maximum of €180.000.
